Hi

I have been away and suspect that submissions on the closing of Upper Trafalgar Street have likely closed - but will send a comment anyway.

It is great having it closed off in the summer but a part of the charm of that is looking forward to it opening at the beginning of summer for another lovely alfresco season. That would be lost if it was open all year round - a bit like we look forward to the start of asparagus season!

In the winter there is ample outside seating for those wanting to brave the elements at the restaurants there but generally it is too cold - lets keep it special for the summer.

Thank you
Ainslie Riddoch
